 - (vi) In any way which may damage any property or injure or kill any person; or
 - (vii) To transmit, publish or communicate material which is defamatory, offensive, abusive, indecent, menacing or unwanted.

Section 6.04 Customer To Comply With BEYONTEL's Directions

- (a) The Customer acknowledges that:
 - (i) where the Service is a carriage service, BEYONTEL may be required to intercept communications over the Service as directed by an authorised entity; and
 - (ii) BEYONTEL may monitor the Customer's usage of the Service and communications sent over it for the purposes of billing and network monitoring and management or as otherwise required by any law, legislation, or direction of any Government Agency.
 - (iii) BEYONTEL may ask the Customer to stop doing something which BEYONTEL reasonably believes is contrary to Articles 6.4 or 6.5. The Customer must immediately comply with any such request. If the Customer does not, then BEYONTEL may terminate or suspend the Contract or take any steps reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with Articles 6.4 and 6.5 or the request.

ARTICLE VII. BILLING & BILLING DISPUTES

Section 7.01 Invoices

- (a) On and from the Commencement Date BEYONTEL will provide the Customer with an invoice providing a breakdown of the fees and charges for the Service and any other charges payable pursuant to the Contract in each Invoice Period.
- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, BEYONTEL's records and/or any other relevant records will be conclusive evidence of usage of the Service and the fees and charges payable by the Customer.
- (c) Unless otherwise agreed BEYONTEL will bill the Customer:
 - (i) in advance prior to installation for the Establishment Fee, all other once off charges, variable charges; and

Section 7.02 Charges

- (ii) in advance for the Invoice Period for the Monthly Service Fee and all other Recurring Charges and any other charges required by BEYONTEL in advance before providing the Service.
 - (d) Processing and verification procedures (including delays in receipt of billing information) may mean that not all fees and charges during the period covered by a bill can be included in that bill. BEYONTEL may include those charges in any subsequent bills.
 - (e) BEYONTEL reserves the right to re-issue any bill if any error is subsequently discovered.
- (a) The Customer is liable for all charges whether or not the Customer authorised the particular use of the Service by another person and the Customer will continue to be liable for the charges if the Customer allows another person to occupy the Customer Premises or use the Service.
 - (b) The Customer may dispute an invoice if the Customer reasonably believes that the Customer is not liable to pay the charges because of an inaccuracy, omission or error in the invoice. Any dispute relating to the payment or accuracy of any invoice must be resolved pursuant to the Billing Disputes Procedure specified in Article 9.

ARTICLE VIII. CREDITWORTHINESS

Section 8.01 Credit Check

- (a) The Customer acknowledges that the provision of the Services, BEYONTEL Equipment and any other obligation under the Contract by BEYONTEL shall be subject to BEYONTEL's privacy policy, the requirements of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth); Telecommunications Act 1997 (Cth); Telecommunications (Interception and Access) Act 1979; Spam Act 2003 (Cth); and any other applicable laws, codes and regulations.
- (b) For the purposes of processing the application for Service, establishing the Customer's account and the ongoing credit management of the Customer's account BEYONTEL may need to disclose to a credit reporting agency personal information relating to the Customer which is in BEYONTEL's possession, including but not limited to, information referred to in Article 8.3 and the Customer hereby consents to such disclosure or use.
- (c) Pursuant to Article 8.01 the following represents a list of Customer information relating to the Customer which may be disclosed to a credit reporting agency:

 - (viii) that BEYONTEL has ceased to provide Services to the Customer in accordance with the terms of this Contract as a result of Customer default relating to payment/credit; and
 - (ix) any additional and relevant information which BEYONTEL may wish to use or believes should be disclosed may be disclosed or used.
- (d) The Customer agrees that BEYONTEL may obtain from any person or body carrying on the business or undertaking involving the provision of information about the commercial creditworthiness of persons, any information concerning the Customer that concerns the Customer's commercial activities or commercial creditworthiness for the purposes of assessing the Customer's application for Services and the ongoing credit management (including collection of overdue amounts) of the Customer's account. BEYONTEL may, at its sole discretion, refuse to supply its services to the Customer on the basis of BEYONTEL's credit assessment of the Customer, after consultation with the Customer to confirm the accuracy of the assessment.

Section 8.02 Credit Providers

- (a) The Customer agrees that BEYONTEL may disclose a credit report to any credit provider, debt collection agency or any Other Supplier for the purposes of:
 - (i) assessment of the Customer's creditworthiness;
 - (ii) the collection of payments that are overdue.

Section 8.03 Additional Details

ARTICLE IX. DISPUTES PROCEDURE

- (a) In addition if it should be required, the Customer agrees, within 10 Business Days of BEYONTEL's request to provide to BEYONTEL any information (including the Customer's Financial Accounts) which is reasonably necessary to assess the creditworthiness of the Customer.

Section 9.01 Billing

- (a) The parties shall co-operate to investigate promptly and resolve any dispute concerning the accuracy of any billing data, any amount payable and any other issue arising pursuant to the Contract.
- (b) In the event of a dispute as to fees and charges, the Customer shall notify BEYONTEL of any dispute in writing no later than 21 days from the date of the relevant invoice, providing sufficient information to identify the invoice in question and the grounds of the dispute. Failure to make such a notification within the time frame shall be deemed to be a waiver of the Customer's rights to dispute the relevant invoice.
- (c) On receipt of a notice disputing fees under Article 9.2, the Representatives of both parties shall meet within five [5] Business Days and discuss and do all things reasonably required to expeditiously and amicably resolve the dispute.
- (d) In the event the parties are unable to resolve the dispute within [10] Business Days of the commencement of discussions under Article 9.3, each party shall internally escalate to an executive of the party. The executive shall within ten [10] Business Days attempt to resolve and settle the dispute. If the dispute remains unresolved, either party may, on giving written notice to the other party to such effect, commence legal proceedings in an appropriate court to resolve the matter.
- (e) During the existence of any dispute, the parties must continue to perform all of their obligations under the Contract, without prejudice to their position in respect of the dispute unless the parties agree otherwise and the Customer must continue to make payment of amounts of fees and charges or part thereof which are not the subject of a dispute.
- (f) Nothing in this Article prevents a party from seeking urgent interlocutory relief required in relation to the Contract.

ARTICLE X. COMPLIANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AGENCY REQUIREMENTS

Section 10.01 Termination

- (a) In the event that BEYONTEL is unable to provide the Service substantially in the form and of the type contemplated under the Contract due to any direction of a Government Agency, law, rule, regulation, statute or ordinance then BEYONTEL shall provide notice to the Customer of that fact as expeditiously as possible and shall not be liable for any Liability incurred by the Customer as a result of BEYONTEL's failure to provide the Service as contemplated pursuant to this Article 10.
- (b) Upon receipt by the Customer of a notice under Article 10.1, the Customer shall be at liberty to terminate the Service without penalty by notice to BEYONTEL within 14 days of receipt of the Article 10.1 Notice. If the Customer provides this notice to BEYONTEL within the said 14 days then the Service shall be deemed to be terminated by the Customer.
- (c) In the event that the Customer does not provide a termination notice to BEYONTEL under Article 10.02 then the Service shall revert to an BEYONTEL Managed Service in accordance with the terms of this Contract, except as provided for in writing by BEYONTEL.

ARTICLE XI. NATURE OF THE CONTRACT

Section 11.01 Agreement

- (a) The Contract contains the entire agreement between BEYONTEL and the Customer and supersedes all prior communications and negotiations between the parties.
- (b) Unless otherwise specified in the Contract, no amendment or variation of the Contract is valid or binding on a party unless made in writing and signed by the Customer and BEYONTEL.

- (b) Where BEYONTEL is not permitted to exclude its liability for any loss or damage in connection with BEYONTEL's breach of a Consumer Guarantee (as defined under the Australian Consumer Law), but are permitted to limit its liability for such a breach, then, unless the Customer is able to establish that it is not fair and reasonable for BEYONTEL to do so, BEYONTEL's liability to the Customer is limited to:
 - (i) in the case of goods:
 - 1) replacement of the goods;
 - 2) supply of equivalent goods;
 - 3) repair of the goods;
 - 4) payment of the cost of replacing the goods;
 - 5) payment of the cost of acquiring equivalent goods; or
 - 6) payment of the cost of having the goods repaired; and
 - (ii) in the case of services:
 - 1) resupply of the services; or
 - 2) payment of the cost of the resupply of the services.
- (iii) The limitations of liability in Article 13.02 do not apply to a breach of any Consumer Guarantee relating to goods or services of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption.

Section 11.04 Representation

- (a) The Customer acknowledges it has not relied on any representation or warranty made by BEYONTEL which has not been stated expressly in the Contract or upon any descriptions or illustrations or specifications contained in any document including any catalogues or material published by BEYONTEL.
- (b) Except as required by law or regulation or as set out in this Contract, BEYONTEL expressly excludes all Liability for all warranties, conditions, non-fraudulent representations, express or implied concerning the Service, including but not limited to those relating to the availability, performance, quality or fitness for purpose of the Service.
- (c) Under no circumstances will BEYONTEL be liable to the Customer for loss of profits, loss of contracts, loss of use of the Service or any Interruption or for any indirect economic or consequential loss whatsoever, whether arising from negligence, breach of contract, failure of the Service or otherwise.
- (d) The provisions of this Article XIII survive the termination of the Service.

ARTICLE XII. TERMINATION AND SUSPENSION

Section 12.01 Termination by BEYONTEL

- (a) BEYONTEL may, without liability, terminate the Contract or provisioning of the Service at any time prior to the Commencement Date, if BEYONTEL reasonably determines that it is not technically or operatively feasible or commercially viable to supply the Service to the Customer.
- (b) BEYONTEL may, without liability, at its option either terminate or suspend the Contract by giving notice to the Customer if:
 - (i) the Customer breaches its obligations under the Contract and such breach is not capable of remedy or the Customer does not remedy that breach within 30 days after BEYONTEL gives it notice requiring it to do so;
 - (ii) if the Customer does not obtain the consent of the owner of the Premises to the supply of the Service.
 - (iii) the Customer fails to make payment for the Services by the Due Date and such amounts remain unpaid for 10 Business Days after receiving notice from BEYONTEL of such non-payment;

- (viii) a supplier terminates its agreement with BEYONTEL, or ceases to supply services to BEYONTEL, and BEYONTEL is not able to provide the Service using services supplied to BEYONTEL by an alternate supplier on terms
- (c) If the Service is terminated before the end of the Term pursuant to Article 14.02 (other than Article 14.02(viii)) the Customer must pay to BEYONTEL an amount calculated by multiplying the Monthly Service Fee by the remaining months (or part thereof) of the Term and any outstanding charges including Establishment Fee or part thereof.

Section 12.02 Termination by Customer

- (a) The Customer may after the Commencement Date, terminate the Contract, without liability if:
 - (i) it does so pursuant to Article 10.02;
 - (ii) if the Service has been suspended for more than 14 consecutive days through no fault of the Customer other than in the case of a force majeure event.
 - (iii) BEYONTEL commits a serious breach of the Contract, and has not remedied that breach within 30 days of the becoming aware of the breach.
- (b) Except as provided in Article 14.02(a) the Customer may terminate the Contract:
 - (i) before the Commencement Date and the Customer must pay to BEYONTEL all infrastructure and installation costs incurred by BEYONTEL in connection with preparation for the provision of the Service; or
 - (ii) after the Commencement Date but before the end of the Term by giving 30 days written notice to BEYONTEL and must pay BEYONTEL an amount calculated by multiplying the Monthly Service Fee by the remaining months (or part thereof) of the Term and any outstanding charges including Establishment Fee or part thereof. Such right of termination is without prejudice to any other rights which the party not in breach may have.

Section 12.03 Termination By Either Party

- (a) Either party ("Affected Party") may, without liability, terminate the Contract with immediate effect from the date of service of a notice (or with effect from a later date as the Affected Party may nominate in a notice) if any Force Majeure Event prevents the supply of the Service for more than 30 consecutive days.

Section 12.04 Suspension by BEYONTEL

- (a) In addition to BEYONTEL's rights under Article 14.2, BEYONTEL may, upon reasonable notice, without liability and with Immediate effect suspends the Service for as long as BEYONTEL, acting reasonably, considers necessary:
 - (i) if doing so is necessary to allow BEYONTEL or a third party supplier to repair, maintain or service any part of the BEYONTEL Network or Supplier Network used to supply the Service;
 - (ii) problems are experienced interconnecting the BEYONTEL Network with any Supplier Network;
 - (iii) if BEYONTEL believes it is necessary to do so to comply with any law, to protect any person, equipment or BEYONTEL's network, or to enable authorised persons to attend to any emergency.
- (b) If the Service is suspended as a result of the Customer's breach of the Contract or otherwise in accordance with Article 14.01(b) or Article 14.04(a), then the Customer:
 - (i) will have to pay any recurring charges arising during suspension, such as the Monthly Service Fee; and
 - (ii) a reactivation charge if reactivation or reinstatement of the Service is necessary after it has been suspended

Section 12.05 Following Termination

- (a) Upon termination of the Service for any reason BEYONTEL, its agents or employees shall have reasonable access to the Premises for the purpose of disconnecting, dismantling and removing the Service and BEYONTEL Equipment, and the Customer shall render all reasonable assistance to BEYONTEL to enable it to do so.
- (b) BEYONTEL shall upon removal of the Service and BEYONTEL
 - (i) Equipment make good to a reasonable standard, fair wear and tear accepted, any damage caused during October 2013

the removal of the Service, but without any obligation to repaint or redecorate. This Article shall not apply if removal of the Service by BEYONTEL occurs as a result of any breach of the terms of this Contract by the Customer.

Termination of the Contract shall be without prejudice to the right of BEYONTEL to receive any amounts which may have become due for payment prior to such termination but which have not been paid.

Section 12.06 On termination of the Contract for any reason:

each party must, on request by the other party, immediately return or destroy the other party's Confidential Information, except to the extent that it is required by law to retain the other party's Confidential Information;

- (a) BEYONTEL may immediately stop supplying to the Customer the Service;
 - (i) unless otherwise permitted by BEYONTEL in writing the Customer must immediately stop using the Service and the BEYONTEL Equipment;
- (b) unless the Contract expressly states otherwise, each persons' accrued rights and obligations are not affected; and
- (c) the Articles of the Contract which are by their nature intended to survive cancellation of the Service will do so, which for the purposes of these General Conditions, include Article 4, 8.01, 12, 13, 14.06, 15, 17 and 22.

ARTICLE XIII. CUSTOMER'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Section 13.01 National Broadband Network

- (a) Federal legislation relating to the National Broadband Network imposes significant penalties on carriers that extend fixed networks to provide broadband services to residential and small business customers. The penalties exceed $2 million and limit a carrier's ongoing ability to operate its business. A 'small business' is defined as a self-employed person carrying on a business (such as a sole trader) or a business that employs less than 15 people not including casual employees unless employed on a regular and systematic basis. BEYONTEL is unable to provide BEYONTEL Fibre Services to residential and small business customers who are situated outside the BEYONTEL Fibre Services Network Footprint. Accordingly, the Customer:
 - (i) warrants that it is not a residential or small business customer;
 - (ii) agrees that BEYONTEL may suspend or terminate the BEYONTEL Fibre Service immediately, without notice and without liability to the Customer if it has reason to believe that the Customer is a residential or small business customer;
 - (iii) agrees to inform BEYONTEL immediately if its situation may or does change and it becomes or may become a residential or small business customer; and
 - (iv) indemnifies BEYONTEL for any loss, claim, or damage that BEYONTEL suffers or incurs in connection with a breach by the Customer of the warranty in paragraph
 - (v) regardless of any fault or negligence on the part of BEYONTEL.

Section 13.02 Intellectual Property

- (a) BEYONTEL owns all material (including the Intellectual Property Rights) developed by it, or its personnel, or at its or their discretion.
- (b) BEYONTEL may permit the Customer to use this material, or other material licensed by BEYONTEL, as part of the Service. This permission is subject to any conditions which BEYONTEL may impose from time to time and will cease when the Service is cancelled.

Section 13.03 Confidentiality

- (a) BEYONTEL and the Customer each agree to keep confidential the other's Confidential Information and to not use the Confidential Information for any other purpose than that for which it was disclosed or which may cause the Provider loss.
- (b) The Provider retains all property rights in the Confidential Information
- (c) The Recipient may disclose Confidential Information (to the extent reasonably necessary) to its Representatives for the sole purpose of assisting the Recipient for purposes related to the supply of the Service (or for purposes which would be reasonably expected) including billing and account management, business planning and product development.
- (d) The obligations of confidentiality in this Article 17 do not apply to the extent disclosure is required by law or the rules of a stock exchange, a direction by Government Agency, or disclosure to professional advisors in connection with the supply of the Service.

- (e) The Recipient acknowledges that a breach of this Article 17 may cause the Provider irreparable damage for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy. Accordingly, in addition to other remedies that may be available, the Provider may seek injunctive relief against such a breach or threatened or suspected breach.
- (f) The Recipient's obligations with respect to the Confidential Information survive termination and bind the Recipient until the relevant Confidential Information has become part of the public domain other than in breach of an obligation of confidentiality
- (a) The Customer shall not sub-let, assign, dispose of or otherwise deal with its interest in or under the Contract without the prior written consent of BEYONTEL and if any such consent shall be on terms acceptable to BEYONTEL .
- (b) BEYONTEL shall be entitled to novate, assign or sub-contract its interest in and obligations under the Contract or any part thereof to any third party upon written notice to the Customer. BEYONTEL shall have no further obligations to the Customer in respect of any matter relating to such novation or assignment on and from the date of the notice provided to the Customer pursuant to this Article 18.02.

Section 13.05 Related Bodies Corporate

- (a) BEYONTEL may provide the Service through the use of any of BEYONTEL's Related Bodies Corporate.
- (b) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that any debt owed under this Contract is a debt owed to BEYONTEL and that BEYONTEL may take any necessary action in relation to any such debt notwithstanding that the right or obligation giving rise to the debt was satisfied by BEYONTEL's Related Bodies Corporate.

Section 13.06 Notices

- (a) Notices for the purpose of the Contract shall be in writing. A notice given to a party at that party's address set out on the face or at such other address as may be substituted by written notice from such party to the other shall:
 - (i) in the case of prepaid post:
 - 1) be presumed to be given 5 days after the date of posting;
 - 2) be presumed to be delivered at the time of delivery if delivered during normal business hours;
 - 3) be presumed to be given upon receipt by the sender of a satisfactory transmission confirmation report indicating due transmission without error
 - (ii) in the case of email transmission:
 - 1) be presumed to be given upon the sender's computer system indicating transmission in the case of an email transmission.

Section 13.07 Waivers

- (a) No waiver or indulgence by any party to the Contract shall be binding upon the parties unless in writing.

Section 13.08 Goods & Services Tax

- (a) In this Article the expressions "consideration", "GST", "input tax credit", "recipient", "supplier", "supply" and "tax invoice" have the meanings given to those expressions in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.
- (b) All prices or other sums payable or consideration to be provided and which are expressly stated in this Contract are exclusive of GST unless otherwise indicated.
- (c) If GST is payable by the supplier on any supply made under the Contract the recipient will pay to the supplier an amount equal to the GST payable on the supply. Subject to the supply of a tax invoice that amount will be paid at the same time the consideration for the supply is payable under the agreement and will be paid in addition to the consideration. The supplier shall provide the recipient with a tax invoice in respect of the supply.
- (d) Where the recipient is required to pay for or reimburse an expense or outgoing of the supplier, the amount to be paid by the recipient is the amount of the expense or outgoing less any input tax credit in respect of such expense or outgoing that the supplier is entitled to.
- (e) Any invoice or claim provided by the supplier under the Contract will be or be accompanied by a tax invoice or other approved document providing the recipient with the ability to claim an input tax credit.

Section 13.09 Counterparts

- (a) This Contract may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the parties on separate counterparts.
Each counterpart constitutes the agreement of each party who has executed and delivered that counterpart.
